Family Therapist, (full time) Rock Island, IL

JOB DESCRIPTION

Lutheran Social Services of Illinois in Rock Island is seeking a full time therapist. Therapist will provide a full range of therapeutic services to youth and families in the foster care program. The population served includes youth and families affected by trauma and who are experiencing emotional and/or behavioral disturbances. Therapist may also be responsible for providing therapy services to birth parents working towards reunification goals. Services are provided in the office, community, and home as need.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

Therapist must also be able to work collaboratively with case workers, state and private providers. Position requires compliance with state mandates, COA and Medicaid standards, agency policies and program plans. Master's degree in counseling, psychology, social work, or related human services field required. Valid IL driver's license with access to an insured vehicle required. Must pass fingerprint and criminal background check. EOE. To Apply: Please send cover letter and resume to Meagan.Moller@lssi.org or apply online at www.jobs.net/jobs/lssi/en-us/all-jobs/United-States/