About the Scholar:

Dr. Uroš Matić is a research fellow of the Austrian Archaeological Institute (Cairo Branch), Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna, Austria. He received his PhD from the Institute for Egyptology and Coptic Studies of the University in Muenster (Germany) in 2017. His dissertation received the Philippika prize of Harrassowitz publishing house (2017) and Best Publication award of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (2020). Since 2012, he has been a team member of several archaeological missions in Egypt (Tell el-Dab’a, Aswan, and Kom Ombo). He was a Co-Chair of Archaeology and Gender in Europe (AGH) community of the European Association of Archaeologists from 2016 to 2019. His research focus is on war and violence in ancient Egypt, gender archaeology and settlement archaeology. His most recent publications include Archaeologies of Gender and Violence (co-edited with Bo Jensen, Oxbow Books 2017), Body and Frames of War, Violent treatments of enemies and prisoners (Harrassowitz 2019), Ethnic Identities in the Land of the Pharaohs. Past and Present Approaches in Egyptology (Cambridge University Press 2020) and Violence and Gender in Ancient Egypt (Routledge 2021).

Please register at:
https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZckcequqzopH9MEcWUWkTv5mflE4pZ0-OgZ

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.