LISTEN AND SPEAK UP!
A summer program for children with hearing loss that focuses on listening and speaking

Purpose: The goal of our program is to foster the development of spoken language and listening skills in children who are deaf or hard of hearing. Children in the program will participate in a combination of group and individual therapy that includes fun, age appropriate activities designed to enhance communication skills through the use of an auditory-oral approach to communication. Opportunities for parents to learn techniques for working with their children will be scheduled on a weekly basis. Services will be provided by licensed Speech Language Pathologists and Audiologists and graduate student clinicians under their professional supervision.

Who can attend: Children with hearing losses who are 2 ½ - 5 years of age. While this program uses an auditory-oral approach to teaching spoken language, use of this approach at home is not required for participation in this program.

When: Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:00 a.m. - noon
June 19 - July 24, 2018

Where: The Wendell Johnson Speech and Hearing Clinic
University of Iowa, Iowa City

Cost: Fees are charged on a weekly basis and will depend on the type of hearing device your child uses. The estimated fee for speech and audiology services is $200 per week. Your health insurance may cover some or all of the program costs. We submit claims to Wellmark Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Medicare and Medicaid. For other insurance plans, we will provide a detailed invoice so that you can submit claims on your own. We suggest you contact your provider for details. A sliding fee scale is available for services provided at WJSHC; they are based on the client’s ability to pay, taking into consideration annual income and family size. Some scholarships may be available.

How to apply: Please note enrollment is limited! Spaces are filled on a first come, first served basis. To register, send in completed registration form to:
