This conference is sponsored by the Division of World Languages, Literatures and Cultures and the European Studies Group in International Programs.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Michel Laronde in advance at 335-2264.

5th European Studies Conference
BRIDGING EUROPEAN DIVIDES
Dec 6-7, 2013 • 315 Phillips Hall

Friday, December 6
10:30 -11:00 a.m.
Coffee and Tea
Opening of the Conference, Welcoming remarks
Michel Laronde, Conference organizer
Downing Thomas, Associate Provost and Dean of International Programs
Russell Ganim, Director, Division of World Languages, Literatures & Cultures

11:00 - 12:00 p.m.
GUEST SPEAKER: Roberto Dainotto (Duke University)
Europe: Of Borders and Bridges

12:00-1:00 p.m.
Catered lunch on location

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Presentations by UI Faculty

3:00 - 3:30 p.m.
Coffee Break

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.
GUEST SPEAKER: Jean-Louis Pautrot (Saint-Louis University)
Challenging the Divides at the Core of European Diversity: Agamben and Quignard on Naked Life

Saturday, December 7
9:30 - 10:00 a.m.
Catered breakfast

10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Presentations by UI Faculty

11:00 - 12:00 p.m.
GUEST SPEAKER: Roberta Tabanelli (University of Missouri-Columbia)
Transnational Cinema and the Italian Migrant Film

12:00 - 2:00 p.m.
Catered lunch on location
Film: Il resto della notte/The Rest of the Night (Francesco Munzi, 2008)
Introduction and Q&A - Roberta Tabanelli