FACULTY / STUDENT NEWS

Asa Strong (2013 Environmental Studies Alum) accepted a position at the World Resources Institute in Washington, D.C. as a GIS Research Assistant for the Global Forest Watch. Among other duties, he will contribute to the acquisition and updating of data for the GFW website, develop the open data portal, author blog posts, and produce professional maps for publications and social media. He will also provide international training focused on how to use the GFW website and data. Congrats, Asa!

Please attend the Undergraduate Association Meeting on Thursday, December 4 at 4:30. Current Geography graduate students will discuss why they are pursuing a higher degree in the discipline, and the careers to which they aspire. This will be an informal question and answer session, so come and chat with your peers and learn more about the world of geography!

Reminder: Please email any recently received awards, notable presentations or exciting news to angela-bellew@uiowa.edu by Tuesday at 5:00 p.m. to be included in the weekly newsletter.
