Gain a solid foundation and introduction to GIS and digital map making fundamentals, including spatial modeling, georeferencing, and visualization.

MON & WEDS | 9:00-10:15
243 JESSUP HALL

An entry level course in geographic information science designed for graduate students and advanced undergraduates who will use GIS software in their research and career.