Global Health Studies Certificate
at the University of Iowa

The UI Global Health Studies Program offers an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the complex factors influencing health and disease locally and around the world. The academic curriculum builds upon the humanities, social sciences and health sciences to help students understand underlying forces—such as history, culture, gender and sexuality, economics, politics, race and ethnicity, the environment, law, and technology-- which lead to health disparities worldwide.

Requirements

http://clas.uiowa.edu/global-health-studies

GHS:2000 Intro to GHS (or GHS:4900 Approaches) 3 s.h.
GHS:3010 Identifying/Developing a GH Project 3 s.h.
GHS:3030 Global Health Conference 1 s.h.
GHS:3500 Global Public Health 3 s.h.
GHS:3720 Contemporary Issues in Global Health 3 s.h.

Global Health Studies Electives: 4 s.h.

Approved course list on GHS website

Approved Global Health Project

Information on GHS website, consult advisor

Public Presentation and Written Report

Enroll in GHS:4900 Independent Project in GH 1 s.h.

Information on GHS website, consult advisor

World Language (CLAS general education requirement) 18 s.h.

The 18 s.h. required must include at least 12 s.h. of 3000+ level coursework earned at the University of Iowa. No more than 6 s.h. of coursework used to satisfy another major, minor, or certificate may be applied toward the certificate.

Contact Us: globalhealthstudies@uiowa.edu; (319)-384-1328