Internship or Externship

This contract requires the following information from you

- Personal Information (School and Contact)
- Supervisor's E-mail Address
- Contract Beginning Date
- Contract End Date
- Semester for Academic Credit
- # of Semester Hours

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- You will learn the basics of scouting
  - 5 Tools
  - What to look for in a batting stance
  - What to look for in a pitching motion
  - Ability to identify pitches
  - How to fill out a scouting report
  - Which angles provide the best video for both pitchers and hitters
- You will learn the basics of analytics
  - Will learn advanced hitting and pitching metrics
  - Will learn which analytics are most applicable to each position
  - Will learn which statistical profiles fit which position
  - Will learn how analytics and scouting work together.

METHODOLOGY:

- You will be tasked with scouting now only your school’s players but also opposing school’s players as well
- You will complete close to 50 scouting reports over the course of the semester
- You will be receiving training in the fall months and during the spring will have monthly meetings with your regional supervisors to discuss your work.
- Throughout the year you will be in constant communication with your fellow scouts and supervisors through groupme and email.
- You will be expected to attend most if not all of your school’s home baseball games

RESOURCES:

- Moneyball by Michael Lewis
- The Only Rule is it Has to Work by Ben Linbergh and Sam Miller
- The Arm by Jeff Passan
- During your time with us you should also be networking with MLB scouts you will meet at these games. These will provide invaluable learning and professional resource for you in the future.

EVALUATION:

- You will receive weekly to biweekly performance reviews on your scouting reports
- Furthermore you will have the opportunity to turn what you have learned into written essays that will be published on our website