Internship Details

Requirements:

We require someone who is creative, confident, organized and proactive. A love for the sports/event management space is a must! A Cadence intern will need to handle multiple, deadline driven projects. An interest/knowledge in endurance sports such as running, cycling, triathlon, etc. is beneficial, but not mandatory. Weekend availability is imperative. During your internship at Cadence, you will be given an opportunity to travel around the country to our events IF you show that you are capable.

*Applicants with no class conflictions will be strongly favored

Internships Available: 1-2

Start/End Date:
Start – Early/Mid January 2019 (start date flexible)
End – End of May/Early June 2019 (internships can be extended if availability allows; flexible dates for graduation as needed)
Pay:
While this is an unpaid internship, you will have the opportunity to earn income at our events, which will be paid at a TBD rate per event.

Hours:
Monday – Friday: 9:00AM-3:00PM

How to apply:
Please send cover letter and resume for Spring applications to:
Luke Allelo
luke@cadencesports.com

Application deadline: December 3rd, 2018
*Interviews will be scheduled with qualified applicants as applications are received. All decisions will be made by December 10th, 2018 but positions may be filled earlier.
