Veterans for Peace Speaking Tour

The three Iowa chapters of Veterans for Peace announce a nine-city tour of Iowa by former FBI agent and whistleblower Coleen Rowley and retired CIA analyst Ray McGovern beginning Thursday, September 24. Rowley and McGovern seek to raise the level of Iowans understanding of current national security issues. They will focus on specific issues that the caucus-goers may raise at the February caucuses, and on specific questions that Iowans may ask of presidential candidates visiting the state. The speaking tour includes stops in Dubuque, Cedar Rapids, Cedar Falls, Waterloo, Davenport, Parnell, Iowa City, Ames, and Des Moines.

The Iowa City stop of the tour will take place on Monday, September 28 at 7:30PM at the Englert Theatre. An additional lecture will be given on Tuesday, September 29 at 12:00PM at the Iowa City Foreign Relations Council (1120 University Capitol Center), with required advanced registration.

American INJUSTICE

Mercy, Humanity and Making a Difference

Bryan Stevenson, J.D.

Sunday, October 4, 2015 at 2:00 PM

Iowa Memorial Union Main Lounge at the University of Iowa

America has the largest prison population in the world – and the criminal justice system that puts the men, women, and children in these prisons is broken. Excessive punishment and abuse are widespread, and the collateral consequences are devastating lives and communities. An inspiring and unflinchingly honest speaker, Bryan Stevenson will talk about defending some of America’s most rejected and marginalized people. The stories he tells are heartbreaking, yet inspiring, and motivate audiences to make a change.

Bryan Stevenson will appear as part of the Iowa City Book Festival, in conjunction with the University of Iowa Center for Human Rights, One Community One Book project, and the Geneva Lecture Series sponsored by Geneva Campus Ministry.

As an attorney, Stevenson has won relief for dozens of condemned prisoners, argued six times before the Supreme Court, and won national acclaim for his work challenging bias against the poor and people of color. Stevenson’s work fighting poverty and challenging racial discrimination in the criminal justice system has won him numerous awards, including the MacArthur Foundation “Genius” Grant.

His book, Just Mercy, is the fall 2015 One Community One Book selection, and his appearance will cap a schedule of several events throughout the fall. The book was named by Time magazine as one of the 10 best books of nonfiction for 2014 and has been awarded several honors including a 2015 NAACP Image Award.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Katherine Damisch at Geneva@uiowa.edu

Primrose & Wells

In 1884, The Primrose & Wells Circus is playing way out west in the Nevada Territory. When the managers steal the money and leave the side show performers stranded in the middle of nowhere, they must find a way back, by any means. But the choices to go east or west, to kill or suffer, to love as you are or change fundamentally, all bring these characters to a crossroads

Art Exhibit on Arranged Marriage

Public Space One will be hosting an exhibit entitled ‘arranged marriage’ by Gyan Shrosbree and Surya Gied until Saturday, October 24.

The artists describe their works:

Two works as one entity. The abstract patterns and different materials break into the scenes of figuration and surfaces. The combination of our work creates a surprising and playful conversation driven by a modular collage making approach.

ICFRC Background

Founded in 1983, ICFRC promotes understanding of international issues by hosting community forums with expert speakers. ICFRC provides a true town-gown opportunity for its members, students and community residents to hear and engage with these speakers.

ICFRC is a private non-profit governed by a Board of Directors and operating within the aegis of the UI International Programs, the UI Honors Program and the Stanley-UI Foundation Support Organization. We generate our own funds through membership dues, voluntary donations, sponsorships and grants. We enjoy the support of 241 dues-paying members. During the academic year we usually offer thirty-two programs, the majority of which occur during fall and spring semesters. In-person attendance and UI Honors attendance are both at record highs.

Meetings feature catered luncheons attended by faculty, staff, students, and community members. ICFRC meets in the Fellowship Hall of the Congregational Church, corner of Jefferson and Clinton, next to Phillips Hall. Programs are held on a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, convening around 11:45 am and adjourning by 1:15 pm. Attendance ranges from 50 to 100 persons. ICFRC programs are professionally recorded by City Channel 4 for rebroadcast on www.citychannel4.com/video and UI Main Library Archives.

Interns

Interns are critical to fulfilling the ICFRC mission. Our programs are in large measure dependent on the skills and personalities of our Interns.

Primary Responsibilities

- Devote eight hours per week to ICFRC.
- Attend and work as many ICFRC luncheon programs as possible.
- Please suggest possible speakers, topics and ideas for improvements.
- Always interact in a professional, personable manner with our members and guests.
- Please wear business casual attire at ICFRC programs.
- Develop program announcements and attendance lists via constant Contact, and generate printed flyers for programs.
- Develop familiarity with our software including Access, Excel, Publisher, Wordpress, and social media.
- Assist with correspondence, Membership, Annual Report, and fundraising materials.
- Attend committee meetings as requested.
- You will be reporting to the Executive Director.

Peace Corps Info Session: Make a Difference!

Seniors, now is the time to apply to Peace Corps. Applications are being accepted for April-September 2016 departures!

An information session will be held Monday, September 28 at 7PM at the International Commons (Room 1117) in the Old Capitol Mall. Make a difference in the lives of others and your own. Serving in the Peace Corps is a great way to use your skills to help a community in need, immerse yourself in a new culture, learn a new language, and have the experience of a lifetime. Join us at this information session to learn about volunteer experiences, the benefits (all expenses are paid), have your questions answered, and gain tips to guide you through the application process. Returned volunteers will share their stories.

Apply now to be overseas by next spring, summer, or fall. Choose your country and program. Search our available programs and find the assignments that fit your skills and preferences: www.peacecorps.gov/openings.

The UI Peace Corps recruiter is available to help you decide is Peace Corps is right for you and assist with the application process, including resume review. Their Fall 2015 walk-in hours are Tuesdays from 11AM-1PM, Wednesdays from 9:30-11AM, or email peacecorps@uiowa.edu for an appointment.
The University of California at Santa Barbara offers a two-year Master of Arts in Global Studies. This cutting-edge, interdisciplinary program was launched in 2006 and has been highly successful in training students to think critically about the challenges of the 21st century. Generous fellowship packages are available on a competitive basis.

The curriculum includes three areas of specialization:

1) global political economy, sustainable development, environment
2) global culture, ideology, and religion
3) global governance, human rights, and civil society

The MA degree is intended to provide an understanding of the political, social, cultural and economic forces that are shaping global societies, institutions and organizations.

WHY DO A MASTERS IN GLOBAL STUDIES?

Students pursue the MA degree as preparation for working in private and public sectors as well as academia. Many graduates go on to PhD programs, law schools, careers in non-governmental organizations (NGOs), business and government.

In addition to the MA degree, UCSB also offers a PhD in Global Studies. http://www.global.ucsb.edu/phd

Fellowship Opportunities

Fellowships and paid teaching and research opportunities are offered each year to support students. All applicants are also eligible for UCSB campus-wide multi-year fellowships.

How to Apply

The online application for the upcoming academic year is available in early September.

The application deadline is December 15, 2015.

PhD IN GLOBAL STUDIES

The University of California at Santa Barbara offers an interdisciplinary Doctorate in Global Studies. Launched in 2014, this cutting-edge program is designed to meet the challenges of the 21st century. Fellowship support is provided to incoming students on a competitive basis.

The new PhD Program at UCSB is the first of its kind at a Tier-1 Research University in the United States. It joins our highly successful MA in Global Studies which has been operating for the past decade. The Doctoral curriculum includes three areas of specialization:

1. global political economy, sustainable development, environment
2. global culture, ideology, and religion
3. global governance, human rights, and civil society

The program typically involves elective courses in an area of specialization, mastery of a second language, fieldwork, and the completion of a PhD dissertation to earn the degree. Students are encouraged to compose a doctoral committee of Global Studies core faculty and faculty affiliates from across the campus.

WHY DO A PhD IN GLOBAL STUDIES?

This PhD degree provides an understanding of the economic, political, social, and cultural forces that are shaping our contemporary world. Faculty specializations include political economy, development studies, law, human rights, religion, culture, sustainability, and international environmental politics.

WFAN Conference: Nov. 6-7
Registration now open!

WFAN is pleased to host our 2015 annual conference in partnership with the Quad Cities Food Hub! The conference will be Friday and Saturday, November 6 and 7, at the Radisson Quad City Plaza in Davenport, Iowa, and our theme is: Women Protecting Pollinators, Protecting Food.

Click here to learn more about the conference and to register.

The Quad Cities Food Hub is a bi-state initiative (staffed almost entirely by women) that connects farmers and consumers in Iowa and Illinois, in an effort to augment regional local food production and consumption. It's part of a network of Regional Food System Working Groups in the state of Iowa.

Two outstanding projects are their Shared Use Community Kitchen, and Local Market Store, both located in the QCFH headquarters at the historic Freight House building on the banks of the Mississippi River. The Freight House also contains a farmers' market, a farm-to-table deli and a craft brewery and pub -- all within walking distance of the Radisson. Our urban ag field tour on Friday will make a stop at the Food Hub, and our popular Friday evening farm-to-table tasting event will take place in the community kitchen.

See the draft agenda and learn more about lodging, field tours and intensives, and our keynote speaker at the conference page on our website.

80% of all people under 50 years of age will have HPV at some point in their lives. One in two current college students have HPV.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the human papillomavirus (HPV) is thought to be responsible for more than 90% of anal and cervical cancers, about 70% of vaginal and vulvar cancers, and more than 60% of penile cancers.

“Someone You Love: The HPV Epidemic” is a feature length in-depth documentary on the stories of struggle, tragedy and triumph surrounding this complicated and often misunderstood infection. Women are living with (and dying from) HPV related cancers every single day. These women are real. Real Mothers, Real Daughters, Real Wives, Girlfriends, Friends and Sisters. Anybody who has been sexual with even one partner is at a high risk for catching HPV. This documentary lifts the veil and reveals some of the faces of HPV and sheds light on the risks, myths, problems, politics, misconceptions and hard truths about this widespread epidemic.

TARGET AUDIENCE
Healthcare professionals and the public.

MUCH: Midwest Undergraduate Conference in the Humanities, 2015

Saturday, November 7, 2015  Wartburg College

Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa will host the 5th Midwest Undergraduate Conference in the Humanities on November 7, 2015. We invite submissions focusing on any area of original research-based scholarship in the humanities, including creative work, from colleges and universities in the Midwest. Presentations may take the form of 10-15 minute papers, readings, displays, and lecture-recitals. We particularly welcome scholarship utilizing interdisciplinary approaches and/or engaging with questions of diversity.

Students will need to ask a faculty member in their field of research to sponsor the paper. The faculty member should be willing to offer guidance as the student develops and refines the project. We would also like to extend an invitation to faculty sponsors to attend the conference and to serve as panel moderators.

Proposals (200 word max) should be submitted along with the submission form to: MUCHconference@gmail.com. This address should be used only for submissions.

Questions can be submitted to Zak Montgomery (zak.montgomery@wartburg.edu)

Deadline for submissions: October 2, 2015  Anticipated Registration Fee: $25
Submit to The Journal of Undergraduate International Studies

The Journal of Undergraduate International Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is currently accepting submissions for its Fall 2015 issue.

The Journal seeks to publish the world's premier undergraduate work related to international themes and topics including, but not limited to: international conflict and conflict resolution, human rights, environmental issues, history, culture, comparative politics, economics, development and trade, global security, and international health. To view previous issues, please visit: http://juis.global.wisc.edu/issues.html

Our submissions generally range in length from 5 to 20 pages, but may be longer. Submissions must not have been published in any other publication. Current undergraduates and recent graduates (one semester out or less) are eligible to submit their work. To submit your work, email it as an attachment to juis@global.wisc.edu, following these guidelines:

1. Submit as a word document, not a PDF or other type of file
2. Use an easily read font, such as Times New Roman
3. Double-space your document
4. Follow the Chicago Manual of Style for all citations (for help, visit http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html). This is not a requirement unless the piece is selected for publication
5. Convert all your citations and footnotes to endnotes
6. Make sure your name and academic affiliation are not present in the text of your work
7. Include an abstract of 100 words or less

Submissions must be received by Sunday October 11, 2015 at 11:59 pm CST. We look forward to reading your work!

We also welcome photos, either related to or independent of the content of submitted essays. These photos could appear on the cover of the journal or on our website, www.juis.global.wisc.edu. Photos can be sent as high-resolution jpegs to juis@global.wisc.edu. Please indicate the subject, the location, and the date of the photo, as well as your name and university affiliation.

Please feel free to contact us at the above email with any questions.
