IS:3020 WRITING PROJECT IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Students interested in developing research and writing skills (essays and articles) may enroll in IS:3020 Writing Credit in International Studies for up to 3 s.h. in conjunction with an appropriate course, with permission of instructor. The student will work independently with the course instructor to work on writing projects that could improve the research papers for the course or work on a publication/conference project.

Students must submit this completed form (with proposal attached) to the International Studies Program before receiving permission to enroll in IS:3020 Writing Credit in International Studies on ISIS.
