Latina/o/x Studies Minor at the University of Iowa

The Latina/o/x Studies minor offers an interdisciplinary perspective on the history, culture, politics, and experiences of Latina/o/x people in the U.S. The minor helps prepare students for careers in the health professions, law, social work, the arts, community activism, education, and business.

Requirements

LATS:2280 Introduction to Latina/o/x Studies
Historical and Cultural Approaches course
Historical and Cultural Approaches course
Comparative and Transnational Topics course
Additional Course (from approved lists above)

15 s.h.

At least 12 s.h. must be earned at the University of Iowa. No more than 6 s.h. of coursework used to satisfy another major, minor, or certificate may be applied toward the minor.

U Iowa Latina/o/x Studies Program
319-384-1328
24 Phillips Hall
latinx-studies@uiowa.edu