Farewell

Having lived long in time, he lives now in timelessness without sorrow, made perfect by our never finished love, by our compassion and forgiveness, and by his happiness in receiving these gifts we give. Here in time we are added to one another forever.
~Wendell Berry, Epitaph

A Note of Thanks: Bruce’s family is grateful to the University of Iowa and the Department of Communication Studies for hosting this event and for support the past few months and throughout Bruce’s career. We are also deeply thankful for friends and family, near and far, who have brought us love and comfort in this time of sorrow. Bruce’s spirit lives on in you all.
