Lecturer Position
Department of Health and Human Physiology
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
The University of Iowa

The University of Iowa’s Department of Health and Human Physiology invites applications to fill a non-tenure track lecturer position for the academic year 2015-16, renewable for a total of three years (2017-18) and renewable thereafter in three year increments pending collegiate approval and demonstrated excellence in teaching. Applications are sought from candidates with a demonstrated potential for outstanding teaching particularly in the areas of human anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, or closely related disciplines. Duties of this position include teaching and undergraduate advising.

Education Requirement: Earned relevant doctoral degree

Required Qualifications: Previous teaching experience.

Desirable Qualifications: A demonstrated potential for outstanding teaching in the areas of human anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, or closely related disciplines.

To apply for this position, visit The University of Iowa website at http://jobs.uiowa.edu, requisition #65636. Candidates should send a letter of interest and curriculum vitae to the Search Committee online and must submit three e-mail addresses of recommenders online to the same link. Consideration of completed applications will begin March 15, 2015 and preliminary interviews may be conducted by telephone or teleconference.

The Department or School and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences are strongly committed to diversity; the strategic plans of the University and College reflect this commitment. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment free from discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, religion, associational preference, status as a qualified individual with a disability, or status as a protected veteran. The University of Iowa is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.