IDENTIFYING BEHAVIORS

Distressed Students:
- Are irritable, sad, unduly anxious, withdrawn, confused, lacking motivation or concentration, seeking constant attention, or demonstrating bizarre, erratic or concerning behaviors including references to self-harm.

Disruptive Students:
- Interfere in the University of Iowa’s learning environment with behavior that is reckless, disorderly, aggressive, defiant, destructive, threatening, and dangerous to self or dangerous to others.

Students Concerned for Personal Safety
Typical stalking behaviors include:
- Repeated phone calls to home or work, including hang-ups
- Unsolicited letters, email messages, or text messages
- Unsolicited contact through any social media (e.g., Facebook, Twitter)
- Unsolicited sending or leaving of gifts
- Notes on car or at personal residence
- Surveillance behaviors, both on foot and by car
- Unexpected appearances at frequented places (e.g., classrooms, stores)
- Contacting friends, family or co-workers without consent or knowledge
- Searching public and private records to get personal information
- Vandalism (residence, car, personal possessions)
- Entering residence to move things or steal personal items

RESPONDING TO STUDENTS

Response
- Safety first. The welfare of the student and the campus community is our top priority when a student displays threatening or potentially violent behavior.
- Trust your instincts; seek consultation from your department chair, supervisor or the Threat Assessment Team or University Counseling Service.
- Don’t be afraid to ask students if they feel their functioning is impaired, or have thoughts of harming themselves or others.
- Avoid threatening, humiliating, or intimidating statements.

Documentation
- Maintain a record of all incidents/events.
- Keep all correspondence (notes, letters, emails, voicemails, Facebook messages, text messages, etc.).

Making Reports
- Immediately report incidents to the Threat Assessment Team.
- Keep the Threat Assessment Team informed of new “events.”
- Share information and consult with appropriate University personnel to coordinate care for the student.
- Safeguard the student’s privacy rights.
- Always report serious or persistent inappropriate behavior to the Office of the Dean of Students.

This guide was developed in part under grant number 1U79SM060534-01 from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The views, policies, and opinions expressed are those of the grant recipient and do not necessarily reflect those of SAMHSA or HHS.
ASSISTING VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, DATING VIOLENCE, OR STALKING

Receive Information

• LISTEN ACTIVELY. Don’t interrupt, or inject your feelings. Your caring but silent attention will be invaluable.
• NEVER BLAME them for being assaulted. Even if the student reports feeling responsible, say clearly and caringly that it wasn’t their fault.
• ASK before you touch. Don’t assume that physical contact, even a gentle touch or hug, will be comforting to a survivor. Be patient, give them the space they need.

Respond

• INFORM the student that certified victim advocacy services are available from the Rape Victim Advocacy Program, 24/7, 319-335-6000.
• INFORM the student that you are glad that they chose to tell you, and that you must now inform certain individuals within the university, including those that can offer them the best support and resources, such as the Office of the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator 319-335-6200.

Refer

TAKE ACTION. Per the university policy Part II, Chapter 4, “any academic or administrative officer of the University who observes sexual harassment or who becomes aware of allegations of unwelcomed sexual behavior or sexual harassment through the report of a complainant (including a third party) shall take the actions described in this section, even if the alleged victim does not wish any action to be taken”. In any case in which the alleged victim of the behavior is a student the academic or administrative officer must:

(a) inform the complainant that certified victim advocacy services are available from the Rape Victim Advocacy Program 319-335-6000, and
(b) refer the complainant to the Office of the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator 319-335-6200, and
(c) notify the Office of the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator 319-335-6200 of the allegations within two business days.

LAWS AND CODES

Privacy Laws and Confidentiality:
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) permits communication about a student of concern under the following circumstances:

• UI may disclose personally identifiable information from an “educational record” to appropriate individuals in connection with a health or safety emergency. Information may be released to parents, police or others, if knowledge of the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals.
• Information can be shared with University personnel when there is a specific need to know and should be limited to the essentials of University business.
• Observations of a student’s conduct or statements made by a student are not “educational records” and are therefore not protected by FERPA. Such information should be shared with appropriate consideration for student privacy.

UI Student Conduct Code
The Code of Student Life sets forth standards of student behavior and conduct necessary for the maintenance of a campus where ideas are freely exchanged, University property and processes are safeguarded, and conflicts are peacefully resolved. Each University of Iowa student has an obligation to know and adhere to the Code of Student Life, and each University of Iowa student shall be conclusively presumed to have knowledge of the contents of the Code of Student Life from the date of the student’s application to the University.

Examples of behavior prohibited by the Code include:

• Physical assault, sexual assault, sexual misconduct, or domestic violence
• Threats that cause a person reasonably to be in sustained fear for one’s own safety or the safety or his/her immediate family
• Intoxication or impairment through the use of alcohol or controlled substances to the point where one is unable to exercise care for one’s safety
• Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures or other University activities
• Use, display, or storage of a weapon or destructive device
• Sexual harassment
• Racial, ethnic, religious, sexual orientation, disability, and other forms of harassment
• Stalking, hazing, and disorderly behavior
