

ARTICLE XIIISEARCH COMMITTEE FOR A DEAN OF THE COLLEGE*Section XIII.1. Formation of a Dean's Search Committee.

When a vacancy occurs in the deanship of the College, the Provost conducts a search for a new dean. The precedent in the College is that the Provost meets first with the College's Executive Committee and then with the Faculty Assembly to discuss how the search committee shall be constituted, by election and appointment. The search committee shall be diverse and broadly representative of the faculty in the College and shall include a representative of the Provost. The search committee shall include representatives of the student body and of the College's non-academic staff and may include other members designated by the Provost.

Section XIII.2. Duties.

The committee shall recommend candidates to be interviewed for the position. It shall ascertain and transmit to the Provost the assessments by faculty, staff, and students regarding the candidate or candidates being considered. It shall make recommendations to the Provost concerning the offer of the appointment.
