Three Areas

- Accessibility:

Section 508 of the federal Rehabilitation Act mandates elimination of barriers for persons with disabilities and assures accessibility to web page

- Maintainability:

New applications make it easy to update and maintain websites. UI and CLAS now support “Drupal” for all unit websites.

- Identity Standards:

The wordmarks for the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences and for The University of Iowa must appear in the banner on every page of the departmental website.

SPANISH & PORTUGUESE

Bienvenidos; Bem-vindos!

Our faculty offer courses in Spanish, Spanish American, and Chicano literature and culture; in Portuguese and Luso-Brazilian literature and culture; and in Hispanic linguistics, while also providing courses in Spanish and in Portuguese language from the introductory to advanced levels. We have a new and already nationally prominent area in Spanish creative writing. Students (including non-majors) can participate in one of many study-abroad opportunities in Spain and Latin America.
