 Academic Info

1. Fall 2013 classes start Monday, August 26, 2013.

2. Students may add and drop semester-length fall 2013 courses on ISIS through Monday, September 2.

3. Last day to add semester-length courses or to drop semester-length courses without a “W” is Monday, September 9 (and a fee will be charged for each add/drop slip).

4. Karmen Berger is the academic advisor for declared International Studies students with 24+ s.h. Her office is located in 21 Schaeffer Hall.

5. Karmen’s Walk-in Advising times:

   - Monday, August 19 – Friday, August 23: 2:30 – 4:00 pm
   - Monday, August 26: 3:00 – 4:00 pm
   - Tuesday, August 27: 2:00 – 3:00 pm
   - Wednesday, August 28: 1:00 – 2:00 pm
   - Thursday, August 29: 2:00 -3:00 pm
   - Friday, August 30: 10:30 am – noon; 3:00 – 4:30 pm

5. International Studies students can also use the online scheduler found on the IS website to schedule advising appointments with Karmen: https://tippie.uiowa.edu/clas/professional-advising/

6. Questions? Contact the International Studies Program: 21 Schaeffer Hall; 319/384-1328

 September Trip Openings with Community Health Initiative in Haiti

Have you been wanting to go back to Haiti to the same or different village, or go for the 1st time? The September 28-October 5 Les Anglais team has opening for providers (MD, DO, PA, NP), EMT and non-medical. Contact Jana for more information at jzimmerman@chihaiti.org.
Looking to round out your Fall 2013 schedule?
Off-cycle Courses You Shouldn’t Miss!

187:012 Germany and the Amanas (1 s.h.) October 7-14
This class will focus on contemporary Germany's environmental, economic, social, and political issues, culminating in a field trip to the Amana Colonies to learn about German migration to Iowa.

187:013 Poland and the Czech Republic (1 s.h.) October 8-14
This course examines and contrasts these two countries, who both joined the European Union in 2004. Students will also take a look at Czech and Polish immigration patterns to the United States, informed by a visit to the National Czech Museum in Cedar Rapids.

NEW 220:030 Fast Fixes: Improved Writing in 6 Weeks (1 s.h.) Oct 29 – Dec 10
Subtitle: Hard Habits to Break
Don’t know when to use who or whom? How about further versus farther? Do you find yourself confusing homonyms such as there and their? If so, then this class is for you! Understanding and avoiding these errors will instantaneously improve your writing.

NEW 220:030 Fast Fixes: Improved Writing in 6 Weeks (1 s.h.) Oct 30 – Dec 11
Subtitle: Get a Job!
A practical guide to writing successful cover letters, resumes, and personal statements. Learn the core writing concepts to make your application stand out as professional, logical, and concise. No matter what kind of job you seek, the boss will expect you to know how to write effectively. Ensure your applications always land on the ‘interview’ pile.
Community of Color
Getting Connected
Van Oel Multipurpose Room
Currier Hall
Thursday, August 29, 2013
3:30 PM - 5:30 PM
Students, Staff, Faculty, and Community members mix and mingle to share food, fun, and resources at this welcoming event!
Co-sponsor – The Office of Residence Education
Door Prizes! - Must be present to win

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability that requires an accommodation in order to participate, please contact CDE at 335-3555.
FALL 2013 GLOBAL HEALTH COURSE
152:125:SCB
CLIMATE CHANGE AND HEALTH

Time and location: 3:30P - 6:10P Tues. 75 SH
Instructor: Dr. Maureen McCue

This course highlights and integrates the skills, perspectives and experience needed to begin to effectively address the complex challenge of climate change from the disciplines of medicine, human psychology, law, history, business, religion, and environmental science.

Approved for:
- Global Health Minor
- Global Health Certificate

Approved for International Studies Emphasis Areas/Tracks:
- Global Health Studies
- Development
- Global Resources & Environment
ICRFC Lecture Luncheons

An Iowa Solution to Malnutrition in Malawi, Zambia, and Rwanda - Gary Gleason, August 22, 2013

Children in Malawi, Zambia, and Rwanda are suffering from malnutrition. As a major agricultural state, Iowa has the resources, techniques, and experience to assist in such countries. The talk will focus on a range of communication supports for "Scaling Up Nutrition" (or SUN), an initiative started in 2009. SUN programs have particular emphasis on the policies of national nutrition strategies in countries in Africa, supporting the "1000 Days" concept to prevent childhood stunting.

Professor Gleason joined UNICEF after graduating and began a career as a UN staff member and consultant. His work assignments took him to over 30 countries in Africa, the Middle-East, Eastern Europe, Central Asia and the Far East. Through his affiliation with the International Nutrition Foundation, since 1998 he has been a global leader in the prevention of iron deficiency anemia and universal iodization of salt. Gleason has applied his expertise in communication to a diverse range of development assistance including project design and evaluation, national policy development, design of information systems for decision-making, agriculture, child and maternal health, water, hygiene and sanitation, and primary education for HIV/AIDS.

Register here, or contact the ICFRC office at (319) 335-0351 or ICFRC@uiowa.edu.

South Africa After Mandela - Joel Barkan, August 28, 2013

As South Africans and the world celebrate the life of one of the preeminent statesmen of the 20th century, South Africa still struggles to realize Nelson Mandela's vision of a multiracial society based on justice and reconciliation. Mandela has in fact not governed the country since he stepped down as its president in 1999. Mr. Barkan will discuss South Africa during Mandela's administration and its present struggle to overcome the legacies of apartheid.

Joel D. Barkan is Professor Emeritus of Political Science at the University of Iowa and is currently Senior Associate at the Africa Program of the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, DC. A specialist on issues of democratization, governance and political economy across Anglophone Africa, he served as the first regional democracy and governance advisor for Eastern and Southern Africa at USAID from 1992 to 1994. Since then he has straddled the worlds of academe and the policy community by consulting extensively for the Department for International Development, the National Endowment for Democracy, the Department of State, USAID and the World Bank.

Register here, or contact the ICFRC office at (319) 335-0351 or ICFRC@uiowa.edu.

Lectures are 12:00-1:15 pm @ Congregational Church, 30 North Clinton Street. Luncheons are $9.00 for ICFRC members, $12.00 for non-members. We encourage you to bring guests who would enjoy this topic. Honors students, please register through the UI Honors or the UI Honors facebook site: www.facebook.com/HonorsatIowa.
Protecting Respiratory Health in a Changing Climate: David, meet Goliath

IN THE PAST YEAR, several climate change benchmarks have been surpassed - world population now exceeds 7 billion and carbon dioxide concentration in the earth’s atmosphere has reached an average daily level above 400 parts per million. Greenhouse gas emissions have driven the global mean temperature well above pre-industrial levels, resulting in more frequent extreme weather events such as heat waves and floods.

The impact on respiratory health is notable as well. Longer allergy seasons and higher levels of allergens are bad news for the increasing number of people with allergy and asthma. Toxic air pollutants and high urban temperatures produce more ground level ozone and fine particulates, increasing the burden of respiratory diseases.

As the adverse effects of climate change become more severe and more frequent, many environmental scientists are turning their attention from mitigation to adaptation. Dr. Thorne will provide an overview of climate change as a global public health problem with an emphasis on risk factors for respiratory disease. He will describe recent efforts toward mitigation and adaptation and will suggest actions large and small that each of us can take to address what may be the greatest public health challenge of the century.

Peter S. Thorne, MS, PhD
Professor and Head,
Department of Occupational & Environmental Health
Director, Environmental Health Sciences Research Center
College of Public Health, The University of Iowa

3:30 pm
Thursday, August 29
Callaghan Auditorium
N110 College of Public Health Building
BIGGEST. FAIR. EVER.

FAIR DAY

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28
11am - 3pm

STUDENT ORG FAIR
IMU - 1st Floor

VOLUNTEER FAIR
IMU - 1st Floor

STUDENT JOB FAIR
IMU - 2nd Floor Ballroom

...TOLD YOU IT WAS BIG.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact CSIL in advance at 335-3059.
Open Mic
Performers Wanted!

The iowauna is seeking all poets, readers, musicians and entertainers!

When: Wednesday, Sept. 18, 7p.m.
Where: Uptown Bill's Coffee House
Focus: UN Treaty on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

Help us raise awareness and support for the UNCRPD, a UN Treaty that reaffirms the human rights and fundamental freedoms entitled to persons with all disabilities. We invite musicians, writers and other performance artists to present works in support of the cause. If you are interested in performing, sign up at Uptown Bills the week prior to the event or email hanna@unaiowa.org. Pieces related to the topic are preferred.

Anyone is welcome to enjoy the performances and drink some great coffee!
August is a month to remember Hiroshima and Nagasaki. It is also the perfect time to consider the current realities of an increasingly costly and dangerous global nuclear arsenal—something about which the world seems blithely unaware. To inspire and to help bring people up to date about the current situation, the Iowa Chapter of Physicians for Social Responsibility has developed Nuclear neighborhoods, 11,000 Generations. The exhibit, spread across the county, explores the promises and perils of nuclear weapons and power on the lives of countless neighbors across time and space—including here in Iowa! Each of the 6 installations will be similar in that it uses a combination of art, science and history and expresses the same theme, our Nuclear Legacy. Nevertheless, each exhibit is very different. http://www.psriowa.org/.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Exhibit Site</th>
<th>Site Theme</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Aug 1 - Aug 31 | UI Hardin Library for Health Sciences
(main floor reading room) | Health Effects & Medical Uses                   |
| Aug 1 - Aug 31 | Iowa City Public Library
(second floor north wall) | Community & Environmental Impacts               |
| Aug 5 - Aug 31 | Solon Public Library | Children & Youth Perspectives                  |
| Sept 1 - Sept 30 | Iowa Memorial Union
(main floor lobby) | UI Faculty, Student & Staff Interpretations    |
| Aug 1 - Aug 31 | Augusta Restaurant
Oxford, IA |                                                |
| Sept 1 - Sept 30 | Fair Grounds Cafe
Iowa City, IA |                                                |

Contact us at info@psriowa.org with questions or comments.
Work Study Positions at Shelter House

Three work study positions are available at Shelter House Iowa City this year. Interested applicants can email Phoebe Trepp, Director of Program Development at Shelter House, with a resume and cover letter. Students must be work-study eligible to apply.

Volunteer and Outreach Coordinator

Job Description:
- Coordinate group, University of Iowa, specialty, and other volunteers. Screen, train, and provide ongoing support.
- Represent Shelter House at various outreach functions to promote our volunteer opportunities and needs. Events include UI classes, volunteer fairs, church groups, etc.
- Opportunities for additional responsibilities are possible depending on skills, interest, and experience. This could include coordinating our Nurse Managed Clinic and Dental Clinic; working with our Fairweather Lodge program, which provides housing and vocational opportunities for adults with chronic mental illness; etc.

Job Qualifications:
The Volunteer Coordinator must possess a balance of strong interpersonal skills and organizational skills. They must be dependable and attend all meetings and shifts as scheduled. They must be flexible as volunteers and clients needs’ change. They must have strong communication skills.

Employment Support Specialist

Job Description:
- Provide worksite support and supervision for our small janitorial business that employs adults with chronic mental illness.
- Job coach, supervise for quality, and mediate conflict between members of the Lodge program.
- Some business development may be involved depending on skills, interest, and experience. This could include developing worksite assessments, training materials, feedback forms, etc.

Job Qualifications:
The Employment Support Specialist must be able to provide direct feedback openly and respectfully. They must have a high level of attention to detail and understand the importance of high quality work. They must be flexible and willing to learn. They must have strong communication skills.

Lodge Training Support Specialist

Job Description:
- Provide support and facilitate the daily operation of the Fairweather Lodge program; a permanent supported housing and employment program for adults with chronic mental illness.
- Assist in running the daily training schedule which includes recreation and skill based groups.
- Assist in administrative duties such as collecting performance measures, helping with client paperwork, assisting with the medication management system, etc.

Job Qualifications:
The Lodge Training Support Specialist must be reliable and dependable for all scheduled work shifts and responsibilities. They must be flexible, willing to learn, and have strong communication skills. Experience working with people with a mental illness and/or experiencing homelessness is a plus.
Intern at the Iowa International Center – Des Moines

Iowa International Center is a non-profit organization that exists to build cultural respect at home and around the world, one person at a time. The Iowa International Center works with nearly 200 international visitors from more than 60 countries on an annual basis. Other programs include interpretation and translation services, international events and dialogues and youth programs. More information and application instructions are available at http://www.iowainternationalcenter.org/get-involved/college-internship-program.

Position Description/Responsibilities:
- Offer basic office assistance, including database management.
- Assist with scheduling and managing interpreter/client relations for translation/interpretation services
- Assist with general marketing and content development for our newsletters, website and blog
- Research potential professional hosts and cultural events for international visitor groups in Des Moines.
- Assist with publicizing special projects and events
- Schedule and escort international visitors to meetings
- Help with special events

Benefits:
- Gain real-world work experience and develop/enhance skills in the areas of program management, marketing, project management, research, problem solving and interpersonal communication
- Increase knowledge and appreciation of other countries and cultures
- Receive academic credit (pending your advisor’s approval)

---

Teach Abroad with CIEE

CIEE Teach Abroad now offers more spring programs to provide the most options for participants! Applications are open, apply soon. Options include Spain, Dominican Republic, Chile, Vietnam, China, Thailand, South Korea.

CIEE’s short-term Teach Abroad programs allow participants to immerse themselves in local culture while enriching the lives of others. CIEE provides full service throughout the entire program – from placement, to guidance through the visa application process to on-site orientation.

Program deadlines are approaching, interested participants can visit the website (www.ciee.org/teach) and start an application today!

---

Call for Global Health Abstracts

The 11th Annual Global Health and Innovation Conference will take place at Yale University April 12-13, 2014. Register during August to secure the lowest registration rate. Interested in presenting at the conference? Submit an abstract for consideration by August 31.
Special Assistant
Organization for International Cooperation (many cities)

Description

The work of OIC is focused on promoting the use of various innovative short programs to officials worldwide that remedy this conscious awareness shortfall. It is our view that human beings were not put on this planet to suffer and destroy each other. We have many gifts to give the world and an endless reservoir of compassion yet to be expressed.

While we are more than willing to support any official or group of officials in pursuing the use of the programs, we are largely focusing on officials committed to the following challenges. [1] Relations between nuclear armed states, [2] Counter-terrorism, [3] Human Rights and [4] Trafficking in Persons.

This position is for those who care deeply about solving the extreme threats and human suffering facing our world. Only serious applicants need apply – we are looking solely for people of have a very serious passion to be part of solutions for global security threats and humanitarian challenges.

Typical Intern Tasks

The Special Assistant position is very flexible. There are minimal time commitments. Work can be done during the day, at night, or on weekends.

1- Make calls to government and multilateral institution officials to explain our work in very basic terms to see if they are willing to discuss it in more depth with the Project Coordinator and then with the Program Experts. Special Assistants based in New York, Washington or other world capitals also meet with officials depending on project needs.
2- Post our volunteer positions on university job-sites worldwide.
3- Do various types of research related to our project. Some research counterterrorism, national security and UN officials. Conflicts and current government policies and events are researched.
4- Support our social media platforms.
5- Support our global media outreach efforts.
6- Support the Project Coordinator in tasks related to developing alliances with other organizations and various foreign policy and security experts.
7- Work on our new program advocacy related to human trafficking and human rights.
8- Assistant us in developing new members and member volunteers.

Apply by September 10, 2013 by emailing a resume to contact-oic@oic-world-peace.org and calling 856 596 6679. All applicants are expected to call within 24 hours of receiving our information. Failure to follow through or being difficult to reach may count against your possible acceptance.
Fall, Spring, and Summer Internships (Unpaid)
United States Commission on International Religious Freedom
Washington, DC

The United States Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF) offers internships in several areas:
- Administrative
- Communications
- Government Relations
- Office of Legal Counsel
- Policy: Legal Research
- Policy: Regional Policy Analysis (Africa; East Asia; Europe and Central Asia; Middle East, South Asia)

GENERAL INFORMATION
- Currently enrolled students are eligible for internships with USCIRF.
- All USCIRF internships are unpaid; however, course credit may be available.
- USCIRF does not provide housing or moving expenses; however, interns using DC-area public transportation may be entitled to a monthly, non-cash, tax-free transportation subsidy.
- Internships can be full-time (40 hours a week) or part-time (20-30 hours a week) for a minimum of 8 weeks.

QUALIFICATIONS
Eligible candidates should be:
- U.S. citizens (or otherwise authorized to intern with the U.S. government);
- currently enrolled undergraduates or graduate students (including JD and LLM candidates); and
- able to successfully complete a background check.

APPLICATION INFORMATION
Fall Semester: September – December  Application Deadline: July 1
Spring Semester: January – May  Application Deadline: November 1
Summer Semester: June – August  Application Deadline: April 1

Application Materials
- Cover letter explaining your qualifications and why you would you like to intern at USCIRF
- Resume
- 3-5 page writing sample
- 2-3 letters of reference

E-mail, fax, or mail your application materials to:
Internship Program
United States Commission on International Religious Freedom
732 North Capitol Street, NW, Suite A714
Washington, DC 20401
202-523-3240 (phone)
202-523-5020 (fax)
internship@uscirf.gov

Internship descriptions, specific eligibility, and other information at:
http://www.uscirf.gov/about-uscirf/employment-internships.html#sthash.HeVjFT0i.dpuf
China Internship Program - CRCC Asia, LLC

CRCC Asia is seeking ambitious, talented and hardworking students and graduates for its 2013 or 2014 China Internship Programs.

This is an incredible opportunity to gain excellent professional experience and transferable skills in one of the world’s most important and fastest-growing economies. Our China Internship Program is highly regarded by employers and is certain to make a positive impact on your resume. Many of our previous interns are now working in top international firms.

You will work in a company in Beijing, Shanghai, Sanya, or Shenzhen where you will be required to work independently and in international teams. Intern positions are available in durations of 1, 2, or 3 months. Internships are available in many sectors available including Law, Finance, Marketing, PR, Advertising, Business Development, Pharmaceutical, NGOs, Sustainable Energy, Engineering, and more. Chinese language skills are not necessary, fluent English is the only language requirement.

Our program has been featured in numerous high profile media outlets including The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg Businessweek and the BBC. Click here to read more: http://www.crccasia.com/about-us/media-coverage/.

Our Comprehensive Internship Program Includes:
Guaranteed internship in a sector of your choice

- Business visa processing
- Airport pickup
- Housing for duration of program
- Welcome banquet with fellow interns
- Welcome pack
- SIM card and city guide
- Induction course and cultural training
- Beginner Mandarin lessons
- Social and networking events
- English speaking supervisor
- Full support and guidance from our Beijing/Shanghai/Sanya/Shenzhen office

Apply online at http://www.crccasia.com/usa.
DESCRIPTION

From CNN to The Huffington Post, the world is talking about the innovative, movement that is downsizing global poverty. Launched by one of the most influential humanitarians in the U.S., The Borgen Project’s team includes political leaders, diplomats, celebrities and thousands of individuals from all walks of life. The Borgen Project believes that leaders of the most powerful nation on earth should be doing more to address global poverty. The national campaign is working to make poverty a focus of U.S. foreign policy.

About the Internship: This is a 12-week, part-time (3-4 hours per week), unpaid internship. The selected candidate will be able to work from home and pick their own schedule, but must meet weekly deadlines.

- Write 4 blog posts per week.
- Research and write content for the website.
- Edit documents as needed.
- Spend 2-3 days assisting with fundraising.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Strong research and writing skills.
- Must be able to work independently and meet deadlines with very little supervision.
- Experience writing SEO friendly content is helpful, but not required.

To apply: Email your resume and writing sample to hr@borgenproject.org. Applications accepted until November 4, 2013.
Do you have what it takes to be GoAbroad’s next great travel writer?

Now is your chance to prove it! GoAbroad is thrilled to announce the “Next Great Travel Writers” Contest, featuring an opportunity to have your travel stories published on GoAbroad.com, the leading online resource for meaningful and alternative world travel.

Those who submit their travel stories will also be entered for a chance to win a grand prize of $1,000 to be put towards their next travel experience.

To read more contest guidelines and rules, please visit the link below: http://www.goabroad.com/writer-contest.

All entries should be emailed to writers@goabroad.com. Please review the Contest Entry Guidelines for details of what to include in this email entry.

Preferred authors for this contest are those who have actually been to the places, or experienced the events they are writing about. GoAbroad is looking for interesting, colorful, and precise details that show a knowledge or experience of the place or activity featured in the article!

The contest will run from July 1, 2013 until October 31, 2013 at 11:59 MST. Winners will be announced on Monday, November 4, 2013.

All entrants that are selected as contest winners will also receive a biography within their published article, and the chance to get their work seen by a broad international audience. The GoAbroad online communities encompass more than 67,000 world travelers, and with over a million visitors to GoAbroad each month, this is an opportunity not to be missed!

If you have any questions about The Next Great Travel Writers Contest, please contact Tiffany Harrison, by email: tiffany.harrison@goabroad.com.
Gilman International Scholarship Program – for Spring 2014
Study and Internships Abroad

The U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs' Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program is pleased to announce that the online application is now open for students participating in study abroad programs and internships during the spring 2014 term. The Gilman Program aims to diversify the kinds of students who study and intern abroad and the countries and regions where they go. All eligible applicants are encouraged to apply. For more information about the Gilman Scholarship, webinar schedules, and other helpful resources, including subscription to Gilman Advisor Newsletters, please visit the Gilman website at www.iie.org/gilman.

Spring 2014 online applications are due October 1, 2013 by 11:59pm (central)

Students applying for any academic term must meet the eligibility requirements below:

* Enrolled as an undergraduate student at an accredited two or four-year U.S. Institution
* Receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application or during the term abroad
* United States citizen
* Participating in a study abroad program or internship that is no less than four weeks (28 days) in one country and no more than an academic year
* Applying to or accepted into a study abroad program or internship eligible for credit by the student's home institution
* Studying or interning in any country not currently under a U.S. State Department Travel Warning or Cuba

The Gilman International Scholarship Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and administered by the Institute of International Education (IIE). Since the program's inception in 2001, the Gilman Program has awarded over 15,000 U.S. undergraduates of high financial need to study and intern abroad in over 130 countries from more than 1,100 institutions.

For more information, please contact the appropriate person below:

Last Name A-D
Phone: 832-369-3477
Email: gilmanforms@iie.org

Last Name L-Q
Phone: 832-369-3475
Email: gilmandocs@iie.org

Last Name E-K
Phone: 832-369-3484
Email: gilman@iie.org

Last Name R-Z
Phone: 832-369-3485
Email: gilmanapp@iie.org
Critical Language Scholarship Program for Summer 2014

The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. In 2013, approximately 600 scholarships were awarded for thirteen languages, including Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish, and Urdu.

The CLS Program institutes cover approximately one academic year of university-level language coursework during a seven- to ten-week program, and are designed to meet the needs of students from a variety of language levels and backgrounds. Some CLS institutes require one to two years of prior language study (or the equivalent), while others accept students with no prior knowledge of the language.

Formal classroom language instruction is provided for a minimum of 20 hours per week. Extracurricular activities are designed to supplement the formal curriculum, including regular one-on-one meetings with native speaker language partners for conversational practice, as well as cultural activities and excursions designed to expand students’ understanding of the history, politics, culture and daily life of their host country.

Program costs – airfare, tuition, room and board, cultural program expenses, overseas health benefits, and applicable visa fees – are fully covered for all participants. Participants receive a small stipend to cover incidental expenses and meals not provided by the program. The CLS Program provides undergraduate academic credit through Bryn Mawr College. Upon completion of the program, participants also receive a certified American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) score.

Eligibility

- All applicants must be U.S. citizens.
- Applicants must be currently enrolled in a U.S. degree-granting program at the undergraduate or graduate level.
- Current undergraduate students must have completed at least one year of general college course-work by program start date (one year is defined as two semesters or three quarters).
- Applicants must be in acceptable mental and physical health. Grantees will be required to submit a satisfactory Medical Information Form and Physician’s Statement.
- Applicants must be 18 years old by the beginning of the 2014 CLS Program.