Course Description

Festivals all over the world have a common purpose: to bring people together to share an experience. Festivals allow us to celebrate cultures, to preserve history, to enjoy athletic and artistic performances, and to immerse ourselves in the pleasures of visual arts, food, music, and more. In this course we will study festivals of all sizes and purposes as well as practice planning our own festivals. Students will complete individual and team assignments.

Attendance Policy

Attendance at all classes and CIMBA sanctioned activities is MANDATORY. All unexcused absences will have the following consequences:

1. 1st absence will result in a loss of a 1/3 of a letter grade in that class (1/2 in the summer program)
2. 2nd (cumulative) absence will result in a loss of an entire letter grade in that class
3. 3rd (cumulative) absence will result in a dismissal from the program.

Absences due to illness require a note from the CIMBA Office Staff. If a student is sick and cannot attend class, he/she must inform the CIMBA Staff immediately. Failure to do so will result in an unexcused absence.

Grievance Policy

Student concerns regarding this course should first be discussed with me, the faculty member teaching this course. If we can't resolve the complaint, you may contact the CIMBA Interim Director, Stephanie Schnicker (319-335-1041, stephanie-schnicker@uiowa.edu). The Director will review the details of the complaint and involve the Associate Dean of the Undergraduate Programs, as needed.

Academic Misconduct

The Tippie College of Business at the University of Iowa follows an honor code regarding academic misconduct. That code can be found at http://tippie.uiowa.edu/honorcode.cfm and includes cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, obtaining an unfair advantage, forgery, facilitating academic dishonesty, and misrepresentation. Be sure you are familiar with this code. Students who exhibit academic dishonesty will receive a zero (0) for the assignment or examination involved and may receive an "F" for the class. All incidents of cheating will be reported to the CIMBA staff, as well as to the Senior Associate Dean of the Tippie College of Business. The decision of the professor may be appealed to a Judicial Board. The Honor Code for the Tippie College of Business will determine the appropriate appeal process.

Accommodating Students with Disabilities/Academic Accommodations

A student seeking academic accommodations such as a modification of seating, testing, timing, etc. should first register with Student Disability Services, then contact the CIMBA Italy Office (cimba-italy@uiowa.edu) to make further arrangements. See http://sds.studentlife.uiowa.edu for more information.
Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment subverts the mission of the University and threatens the well-being of students, faculty, and staff. All members of the UI community have a responsibility to uphold this mission and to contribute to a safe environment that enhances learning. Incidents of sexual harassment should be reported immediately. If you feel that you are being or have been harassed or you are not sure what constitutes sexual harassment, we encourage you to visit the University website, www.sexualharassment.uiowa.edu/index.php, and to seek assistance from the CIMBA Interim Director, Stephanie Schnicker, at 319-335-1041 or stephanie-schnicker@uiowa.edu.

Assignment Details

QUIZZES
Due: Multiple
Points: 5 each

At various points throughout our course, you will complete brief in-class quizzes to confirm your understanding of lecture and reading materials.

INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNMENT: Introductory Presentation
Due: Tuesday, Week 1
Points: 40

It's time to get to know each other and break the ice on course content. Please select a festival that you have attended, perhaps one that represents your culture, where you come from, an amazing place you've traveled, or a festival that you'll remember always for a particular reason. There's no wrong choice. Do a little background research on the festival and share it with us along with a brief personal introduction. In a visually-appealing presentation that includes several photos, please tell us:

- Your name
- Your home school & major
- The Festival Name
- Location
- Features (activities, size, etc.)
- Festival organizer
- When you attended and why
- What inspired you to share this festival?

You should be able to present this to the class in approximately 5 minutes. As is the case for all work for this class, it should be thorough, error-free, display evidence of research, and should highlight your creativity.

GROUP ASSIGNMENT: Mega Festivals Presentation
Due: Friday, Week 1
Points: 60 total (40 presentation document, 10 live presentation, 10 teamwork)

As we discussed in class, Mega festivals are the ones everyone has heard of, including the Olympics, World Cup, and World's Fairs. Working in their cohorts, students will select a mega festival to feature in a 10-minute visually-appealing presentation to the class on Friday of Week 1. Presentations will define the festival's:

- Name
- Location(s)
- History & milestones
- Features
- Staffing and volunteer details (as available)
- What makes this particular year of your mega festival interesting or unique?
Collaboration and teamwork are critical in putting on a successful festival as well as in being successful in our course. Students should take equal part in the information gathering, presentation building, and presentation giving, or should work positively with their team to divide tasks evenly. Failure to do so could result in a lowered grade for individual students. Teamwork grades will be based on my observations in the classroom, your individual reflection as well as teammates’ feedback.

Please note that the majority of your grade will be based on your document(s), not your presentation, so be sure to include everything you want me to consider via your ICON submission. You are invited to submit a notes file/use the notes feature on PowerPoint.

Project 1 Reflection
Due: Friday, Week 1
Points: 5

No one can plan and implement a festival as an individual, so your ability to work as a team in our course is critical. In this brief reflection (one page or less), please describe your team contributions on this project, any challenges your team faced, and the grade you would give yourself and each of your teammates. (“We all deserve an A+!” is not a realistic or helpful response.) Your reflections will be anonymous, but I may share trends with individuals to help them understand their strengths and challenges and grow as event professionals.

INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNMENT: Hallmark Festivals Presentation
Due: Thursday, Week 2
Points: 50 (40 presentation document, 10 live presentation)

Hallmark events are well-known and often define a place. Examples include the Kentucky Derby, Oktoberfest, Dia de los Muertos, and more. Working as an individual, but within your cohort for support and feedback, please select one Hallmark festival to feature in a 5-minute presentation.

Your presentation will define the festival’s:
- Name
- Location(s)
- History & milestones
- Features
- Audience demographics
- Funding streams
- Financial impact
- Talent, vendors, and programming details

Please note that the majority of your grade will be based on your document(s), not your presentation, so be sure to include everything you want me to consider via your ICON submission. You are invited to submit a notes file/use the notes feature on PowerPoint.

INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNMENT: Major Festivals Presentation
Due: Thursday, Week 3
Points: 50 (40 presentation document, 10 live presentation)

Major festivals draw significant crowds of people who are willing to travel to attend, garner significant national media attention, and have the potential to make a sizeable financial impact on the community in which they are held. Working as an individual, but within your cohort for support and feedback, please select one Major festival to feature in a 5-minute presentation.

Your presentation will define the festival’s:
- Name
- Location(s)
- History & milestones
- Features
- Marketing examples and strategies
- Space planning and mapping
- Ticketing system
GROUP ASSIGNMENT: Local Festivals Presentation

Due Friday, Week 4
Total Points: 150
(100 presentation document, 10 live presentation, 40 teamwork)

Local festivals are those that highlight a particular community or interest and bring members of that local community or interest group together for a public gathering. Their attendance, media coverage, and economic impact can be quite small, but their planning still requires significant thought and creativity. Throughout our course we have studied existing festivals of varying size and focused in on particular features and processes. In this project, you and your team will imagine a local festival incorporating all of the course content in one place. You will share your imagined festivals in a visually-appealing 10-minute presentation that includes:

- Festival Name
- Location(s)
- Elevator Pitch
- Features
- Staffing details
- Volunteer details—management system, opportunities, communication
- Target audience demographics
- Funding streams
- Anticipated financial impact
- Talent, vendors, and programming details
- Marketing examples and strategies
- Space planning and mapping
- Ticketing system
- Event technology
- Sustainability
- Crisis management plan

Each presentation should include MLA or APA citations for at least 10 resources/sources of inspiration in the PowerPoint notes section.

Collaboration and teamwork are critical in putting on a successful festival as well as in being successful in our course. Students should take equal part in the information gathering, presentation building, and presentation giving, or should work positively with their team to divide tasks evenly. Failure to do so could result in a lowered grade for individual students. Teamwork grades will be based on my observations in the classroom, your individual reflection as well as teammates’ feedback.

Please note that the majority of your grade will be based on your document(s), not your presentation, so be sure to include everything you want me to consider via your ICON submission. You are invited to submit a notes file/use the notes feature on PowerPoint.

Final Project Reflection

("We all deserve an A+!" is not a realistic or helpful response.) Your reflections will be anonymous, but I may share trends with individuals to help them understand their strengths and challenges and grow as event professionals.
