NOW HIRING - Behavioral Health Intervention Specialists Full and Part Time (BHIS)

Job Description: Behavioral Health Intervention Services (BHIS) workers at Covenant Family Solutions are responsible for providing high quality behavioral services to patients and their families. This position requires in-home/school base, and office services. The worker assists the Company's management team in the achievement of the goals and plans of the organization.

Education:
A minimum of a bachelor's degree, preferably in the social service field. Experience in the mental health field a plus. Additional training may be required depending on background and experience.

Job Responsibilities:
Assessment and Treatment planning
Treatment and Termination
Collaboration and Case management