If you enjoy a career that supports grieving individuals then we would like to speak with you about our current Bereavement Coordinator opportunity.

This position is responsible for the develop and facilitation the following activities:

- Develop, coordinate and facilitate support groups and programs
- Develop and coordinate bereavement volunteer programs.
- Provide one on one grief support (phone and/or in person)
- Provides educational programs and in-services, per requests.
- Serves as an educational support and resource to staff, Care Partners and community.

Qualifications:

Iowa City Hospice requires 100% of clinical staff, employed at 50% FTE or greater, obtain an applicable certification in hospice and palliative care, by the 3rd year of employment.

Education: Masters Degree in Social Work, counseling or equivalent.

Experience: Working with youth and adults, preferably end-of-life and/or bereavement issues.

Schedule: Varies according to program needs, including some evenings and weekends.

Driving: Proof of current license and insurance coverage.

Interested applicants can go to our Careers page on www.iowacityhospice.org to apply.