Community Based Medical Case Manager
Milwaukee
Full-Time

The AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin, Inc (ARCW), Wisconsin’s only AIDS Service Organization, is seeking to fill a full-time HIV Medical Case Manager to join our downtown Milwaukee office. ARCW is a statewide agency that operates offices in 10 cities.

This Medical Care Manager provides services to individuals and families living with HIV/AIDS with the primary goal of access to medical care, which in turn can ensure long health and life. The Community Based Medical Case Manager position is an exciting mix of work both within ARCW systems and in the community. The position also has an opportunity to assist clients with attaining stable housing through access to a number of housing programs. The Case Manager is vital to the goal of helping all people living with HIV in Wisconsin control their HIV disease. Case Managers help meet this goal through providing the core activities of social work case management: intake, assessment, service plan development, referral and resource development and ongoing care coordination for a caseload of clients with varying need levels. Case Managers work with staff within all of ARCW’s comprehensive and life-saving programs, including medical care, oral health care, mental health care, pharmacy services, legal services, and food services. ARCW is committed to quality services that prevent new HIV cases in Wisconsin and that support everyone living with HIV in Wisconsin in reaching their goals.
