Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker

OPENING DATE: 10/12/18
CLOSING DATE: Open until filled

POSITION SUMMARY:
The College of St. Benedict invites applications for the full-time (83%), benefit-eligible position of Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker. This position works 10 months out of the year. The Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker position focuses on providing services to historically underrepresented CSB (women) through outreach, programming, and in providing counseling and psychotherapy.

Through this work, the Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker aims to advance intentional efforts to provide services to our increasingly diverse college student population. The Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker maintains and enhances campus liaison relationships to deepen connections with and promote services to historically underrepresented women and related groups. The Counselor/Psychologist/Social Worker will join Counseling and Psychological Services staff who collaboratively support a healthy campus culture and work toward empowering women of every background to engage in lifelong healthy decision making, personal growth, and academic success within an environment that is secure, welcoming, respectful, and compassionate, guided by the Catholic Benedictine value of holistic wellbeing.

The College of Saint Benedict, a liberal arts college for women, and Saint John's University, a liberal arts college for men, are located four miles apart in Central Minnesota just outside St. Cloud and 70 miles from Minneapolis. Both are Catholic colleges in the Benedictine tradition. The Benedictine value of hospitality creates a welcoming community for individuals of all faiths and perspectives. Students, staff and faculty from many diverse belief systems collectively bring a rich dimension to the academic, cultural and religious experience at CSB/SJU. Furthermore, CSB/SJU offers professional and personal learning opportunities to engage all members of our community in creating an inclusive and diverse environment. More information about the colleges is available at http://www.csbsju.edu/about.
