Ethical Issues in Setting Professional Boundaries

October 13, 2017 Sioux City IA

Name:_____________________________________Degree: BA ○ BASW ○ MA ○ MSW ○ PhD ○ Other ○

Street Address:______________________________________________________________________________

City:_____________________________State:_________Zip:_________________Phone #:___________________

Email Address:_______________________________________________________________________________

Agency/Organization:________________________________________________________________________

Are you: Current UI or Briar Cliff Social Work Student ○ Current UI or Briar Cliff Social Work Faculty/Adjunct ○

Current UI Field Instructor ○ UI Social Work Mentor ○

Checks should be made out to the UI School of Social Work and sent to Attn: Jefri Palermo, School of Social Work, 308 North Hall, Iowa City, Iowa, 52242. We cannot accept credit cards. Deadline for registration is October 9th. No refunds after that date.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS & SCIENCES
School of Social Work
308 North Hall
Iowa City, IA 52242
LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Define professional boundaries, dual relationships and conflicts of interest
- Examine models for resolving boundary challenges
- Identify personal “hot buttons” for professional boundaries
- Discuss new professional practice standards on technology and ethics

WORKSHOP FORMAT

- 8:30-9:00 Check-in
- 9:00 Start
- 10:30 Break
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 2:30 Break
- 4:00 Close

WORKSHOP PRESENTERS

Dr. Sara Sanders is the Director of the University of Iowa, School of Social Work. She is an Associate Professor and has been with the school for almost 13 years. She obtained her Bachelor of Social Work from St. Olaf College in 1994, Master of Social Work degree from the George Warren Brown School of Social Work at Washington University in 1995, and her Ph.D from the University of Maryland in 2002. Her research interests pertain to grief and loss reactions in caregivers of individuals with Alzheimer’s disease, the role of hospice care for individuals with dementia, and how the larger social service system can be strengthened to meet the needs of patients with dementia and advanced cancer. Currently, she is working with the Department of Corrections to implement an advance care planning program for terminally ill offenders.

Stephen Cummings is a professor and Director of Distance Education at the University of Iowa School of Social Work. Prior to this role, he was a hospital social worker for 10 years. His areas of interest include the use of cutting-edge technology in distance education, considerations for ethical use of technology in social work practice, and general professional development in social work.

COST & CEU’S

Participants who complete the workshop are eligible for 6 contact hours of credit toward social work licensure. It also meets the requirement for Social Work Ethics.

For University of Iowa and Briar Cliff University current students, faculty, adjuncts, field instructors and mentors, the workshop is $10. For all others, the cost of the workshop is $60. Lunch is provided.

Registration form and checks should be mailed to:

Attn: Jefri Palermo
School of Social Work
308 North Hall
Iowa City, IA 52242

Questions?
Jefri-palermo@uiowa.edu
319-335-3750

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Jefri Palermo in advance at 335-3750.