Family Wellness Supervisor
This role will initially provide direct therapy to refugee families and will work to integrate mental health approaches within all of LSI’s Refugee Community Services and expand LSI’s capacity to address refugee mental and behavioral health needs in the community in culturally, linguistically, and trauma-sensitive ways. This position will also oversee refugee elder case management as well as supervise multilingual staff that work with families involved with DHS and JCS.