- Mentor Job Description
  - Duties
    - Interact directly with UI REACH students in the residence hall, classroom, campus, community, and/or community learning groups
    - Provide support to students in participating in campus and community activities and groups
    - Model and encourage acceptable social behaviors
    - Establish and maintain rapport with UI REACH students Serve as a role model in areas of personal appearance, communication, interpersonal skills, decision-making, and responsibility
    - Model and instruct students on how to meet behavior expectations according to the Student Code and social norms in the residence hall, campus environment, and community Refer a student in personal crisis to RA or UI REACH staff
    - Assist in tutoring sessions for individuals or small groups of UI REACH students to improve learning strategies
    - Help students develop self-confidence and positive attitudes toward learning and studying
    - Help students to organize homework and study materials
    - Attend periodic training sessions to increase skills and competencies
    - To provide individual or small group monitoring, prompting, and training for room and self-care tasks
    - To provide assistance to students learning how to access and utilize community resources including Cambus and city bus services
    - Accurately recording and submitting of hours worked
    - Meet weekly with students to help establish campus connections
    - Other duties as assigned
  - Requirements and Qualifications
    - Previous experience working with people with disabilities is strongly encouraged
    - Flexibility in shift coverage
    - Team player
    - Positive attitude
    - Willing to learn
    - Ability to think quickly in fast paced situations
    - Ability to work nights and weekends
    - Patience in working with individuals with disabilities
    - Successful completion of criminal background check
  - Pay Scale
    - Starts at $9.50 per hour

UI REACH Mentor Mission Statement

The mission of the UI REACH Mentor position is to provide the highest quality service to the students of the UI REACH Program through engagement, role modeling, and inclusion. UI REACH Mentors are committed to excellence, possess positive attitudes, and help to create an environment where individuals with disabilities can excel.