College Scholarships and Resources for Women

Jeannette Rankin Foundation (JRF) – awards scholarships to low-income women aged 35 and older, providing opportunities for women nationwide to secure careers and thus break the cycle of poverty.

<https://rankinfoundation.org/for-students/jeannette-rankin-eligibility>

An applicant for a JRF Scholarship must be:

1. A woman, age 35 or older
2. Low-income (based on income guidelines listed below)
3. A U.S. citizen or Permanent Resident of the United States.
4. Pursing a technical or vocational education, an associate’s degree, or a first bachelor’s degree.
5. Enrolled in or accepted to a not-for-profit, regionally accredited institution.

Philanthropic Educational Organization International Peace Scholarship (up to $10,000) – This program awards scholarships to women from countries other than the United States and Canada who are pursuing a graduate degree in the U.S. Recipients are committed to advocating for peace and women’s equity.

<https://www.peointernational.org/about-peo-international-peace-scholarship-ips>

Truman Scholarships (Up to $30,000)

The Harry S. Truman Foundation scholarships support students looking to make a difference in advocacy, nonprofit, and public service. Truman Scholars receive the scholarship as well as the opportunity to participate in leadership development courses and special internships.

<https://www.truman.gov/candidates/how-become-truman-scholar/>

What are the primary criteria for selection?

1. Extensive record of campus and community service;

2. Commitment to a career in government or the nonprofit and advocacy sectors;
3. Communication skills and a high probability of becoming a "change agent"; and
4. Strong academic record with likely acceptance to the graduate school of the candidate's choice.

Very few candidates are strong in all areas. Each year we select a number of Scholars who have gaps in their application. In general, the record of campus and community service and the commitment to a career in public service are the most important criteria. We do not select Finalists who have significant gaps in these areas.
