Research has long supported the value of family inclusion when treating children with mental health, behavioral problems, or developmental delays. Play therapy is the leading intervention in treating children for effective, long-lasting outcomes for improvement. www.a4pt.org You will learn basic tenets of child centered play therapy and how to apply non-directive play therapy in this series of classes. There will be a different course topics offered throughout the year.

These are sequenced to be taken together:
PT I: Introduction to Non-Directive Play Therapy
PT II: Diagnosing Childhood disorders with Play Therapy
PT III: Working phase of Play Therapy
PT IV: Advanced Skills of Play Therapy
