Clinical Case Manager

The University Counseling Service (UCS) is actively recruiting a full-time Clinical Case Manager. Candidate must be licensed as an LISW or LMSW in the State of Iowa by date of hire. License must be maintained as a condition of continued employment.

The University of Iowa is Iowa’s largest employer with a world-renowned reputation. From the health sciences to the arts, our aim is to provide a diverse and technologically advanced community where all work and learn together to achieve excellence. We strive to realize the Iowa Promise to become one of the ten most distinguished public universities in the country. On our beautiful campus spanning the Iowa River, faculty and staff enjoy access to an array of cultural, educational, and recreational activities on campus and in the Iowa City community. The University offers exceptional benefits and many other support resources to help employees balance professional and personal lives.

The UCS is a vibrant, interdisciplinary, fluid, multiculturally proficient, and creative center actively engaged in the furtherance and betterment of compassionate psychological services, outreach, and training. The UCS fosters the mental health of students, staff, and faculty, nurtures student success, and contributes to a safe, welcoming, and multiculturally aware campus community. The UCS is a dynamic part of the Division of Student Life and is highly utilized by students and other campus constituents seeking a variety of mental health services. Staff are cohesive, collegial, engaged, and passionate about working within a campus environment. The UCS runs large psychology and social work practicum programs and an APA-accredited psychology internship. The UCS is a learning organization as clinical service, training, outreach, and professional development are informed by research, local data, and benchmarking with national trends and peer institutions. The UCS identifies closely with the vision, values, and guiding principles of the Division of Student Life.

This position provides psychological services to assist a multiculturally rich and diverse student body in attaining their educational, interpersonal, and academic goals. Psychological services include case management; referral; managing insurance and referral databases; managing external referral relations; individual assessment and counseling; psycho-educational outreach programming and consultation to students, staff, faculty, administrators, and parents/families; supervision and training to graduate students in the mental health professions; and engage in maintenance of records.

Salary and Benefits:

- $48,546 – commensurate based on experience and qualifications.
- Fringe benefit package includes 24/20 (10-month) days paid vacation; sick leave; health, dental, life and disability insurance options; and highly generous employer contributions into retirement plans.
- Check out https://jobs.uiowa.edu/why_ui/index.php for WHY IOWA.

Applicant credentials are subject to verification. For more information about this position and to apply, visit our website at http://jobs.uiowa.edu and search for Requisition #72285. Applications will be accepted through February 15, 2018.

The University of Iowa is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment free from discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, pregnancy, disability, genetic information, status as a U.S. veteran, service in the U.S. military, sexual orientation, gender identity, associational preferences, or any other classification that deprives the person of consideration as an individual.