The University of Iowa School of Social Work invites applications for a two year, half-time Visiting Lecturer position with expertise in macro-level and policy social work for the academic year 2019-20, beginning August 21, 2019 on the Des Moines Center Campus. The initial appointment is for one year (2019-20), renewable for an other year (2020-21), pending collegiate approval and demonstrated excellence in teaching. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The position includes teaching undergraduate and graduate policy and macro-level social work courses. For more information about the School’s curriculum, see http://catalog.registrar.uiowa.edu/liberal-arts-sciences/social-work/ and http://catalog.registrar.uiowa.edu/courses/ssw/.

The School of Social Work offers programs at the B.A., M.S.W., and Ph.D. levels with faculty scholarship foci in the areas of aging, child welfare, family violence, mental health, and culturally competent social work practice. In addition to programs on our main Iowa City campus, we offer a BASW program in Des Moines, and MSW programs in Des Moines, Quad Cities and Sioux City along with a Online MSW program.

Required qualifications:
- Demonstrated record of at least 5 years, full-time, post-MSW policy and/or macro-level practice.
- Demonstrated evidence of potential for teaching macro/policy level courses.

Desired qualifications include:
- Current LMSW or LISW (or equivalent) social work licensure in current state of residence/employment.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit their materials immediately, as application review will begin on Monday, May 13th and continues until filled. All materials must be submitted online at https://jobs.uiowa.edu/jobSearch/faculty/. Refer to requisition #73668. Do not mail paper applications.

To Apply: Please submit a curriculum vitae and/or an annotated resume and a letter of interest with your online application. The letter of interest should be a detailed description of your interest in the position, your macro practice background relevant to the School’s teaching needs, and your prior teaching and/or training experience or potential for teaching. In addition to the online application, please submit three professional reference letters to the Search Committee Chair. These letters should address your professional accomplishments, teaching experience and/or potential, and other abilities relevant to the position. These letters should be sent by the referee directly to the Search Committee Chair. For inquiries about the position please contact:
